"THE CABBY"

Two-Reel Century Comedy
Starring MAUDIE, the Mule

MAUDIE breaks up a poker game when she sees the organ grinder's monkey helping his master to cheat her owner. They all drive off in her master's cab, but run away without paying for the ride. A bridegroom about to be married needs a dress suit and borrows one from the tailor, returning it after the wedding. He doesn't have to pay for it as he tells the tailor he hasn't worn it.

As revenge against the tailor who didn't pay the cab fare, Maudie places a bomb in the tailor's shop. A customer's suit is blown to bits by the explosion, and he insists it be replaced. The tailor refuses and the man leaves, plotting to get even. He returns later to rob the till, into which some kittens have crawled. The cash register runs down the street, followed by the crook and the pursuing tailor. The tailor recovers the money, but Maudie picks his pocket and gives her master the bills.
